Introduction. In 2010, social work officially marked its 60 th anniversary as a profession in Norway. In 1950 the state-run Norwegian School of Governmental and Social Work was established to meet the needs of a "new born" welfare state emerging immediately after the Second World War (Kluge, 1960; Terum, 1982).

Marxian class theory asserts that an individual's position within a class hierarchy is determined by his or her role in the production process, and argues that political and ideological consciousness is determined by class position. A class is those who share common economic interests, are conscious of those interests, and engage in ...
