Spurgeon's Devotional Bible allows for daily reading of the Bible in one or two years. Spurgeon provides commentary on almost every Bible verse. The devotions are presented topically rather than canonically. For example, Psalms and epistles are weaved into the OT chapters where these are in context with the daily reading. This is the personal devotional Bible that Spurgeon used with his family. Many years ago, it was quite common for families to use this Devotional Bible.
